2014 Season

We have had 2 practices with around 13 people coming out. Terry and Jeremy have done a great job. The idea of different location is still out and the Coaches will be able to make a practices for any size. The rugby field would be a nice location if available. There is talk of a hit around during the week, ask the coaches for more information.

The first tournament is coming up in Eugene and will have four teams, there will be filler players from other teams. There also might be a sticks in game at the end.

The Brigade tournament is looking to have 6 teams. We will reserve one field and hope to have other next to it available.

Montana wants players to come up on April 19 for some good Hurling.

Marketing

The first team event is coming up the Run to get Luck we have enough for a $25 entry fee, the plan is to run with jersey on to get exposer.

Cloud would like a demo for St. Patrick day.

Scott presented a banner design which was a approved for a 6' by 2' banner to hang up when the team gets together.

Other size were thought not to be worth the prices.

Advocate newspaper advertising would cost $240 for six ads seemed to be the best cost for display ad still need approval. There is also a section in a lot of papers that is for free events that is free to place which we will move forward with.

Other project still on radar is Video about different aspect of Hurling and doing an order for practices shirts.

Team Bag No problem
